CALUMET

1962

Susquehannock High School
Glen Rock, Pennsylvania
Volume No. XI

Foreword

Come and review the year, just past, in the 1962 Calumet. The joys, the sorrows, the fun, and the hard work—these are all part of the memories we have tried to capture for you through pictures.

To break the conventional styles of past yearbooks we have regrouped the divisions; we hope you like our new arrangement.

Dedication

We, the members of the '62 Calumet staff, dedicate this yearbook to the late Mr. Roland Heathcote.

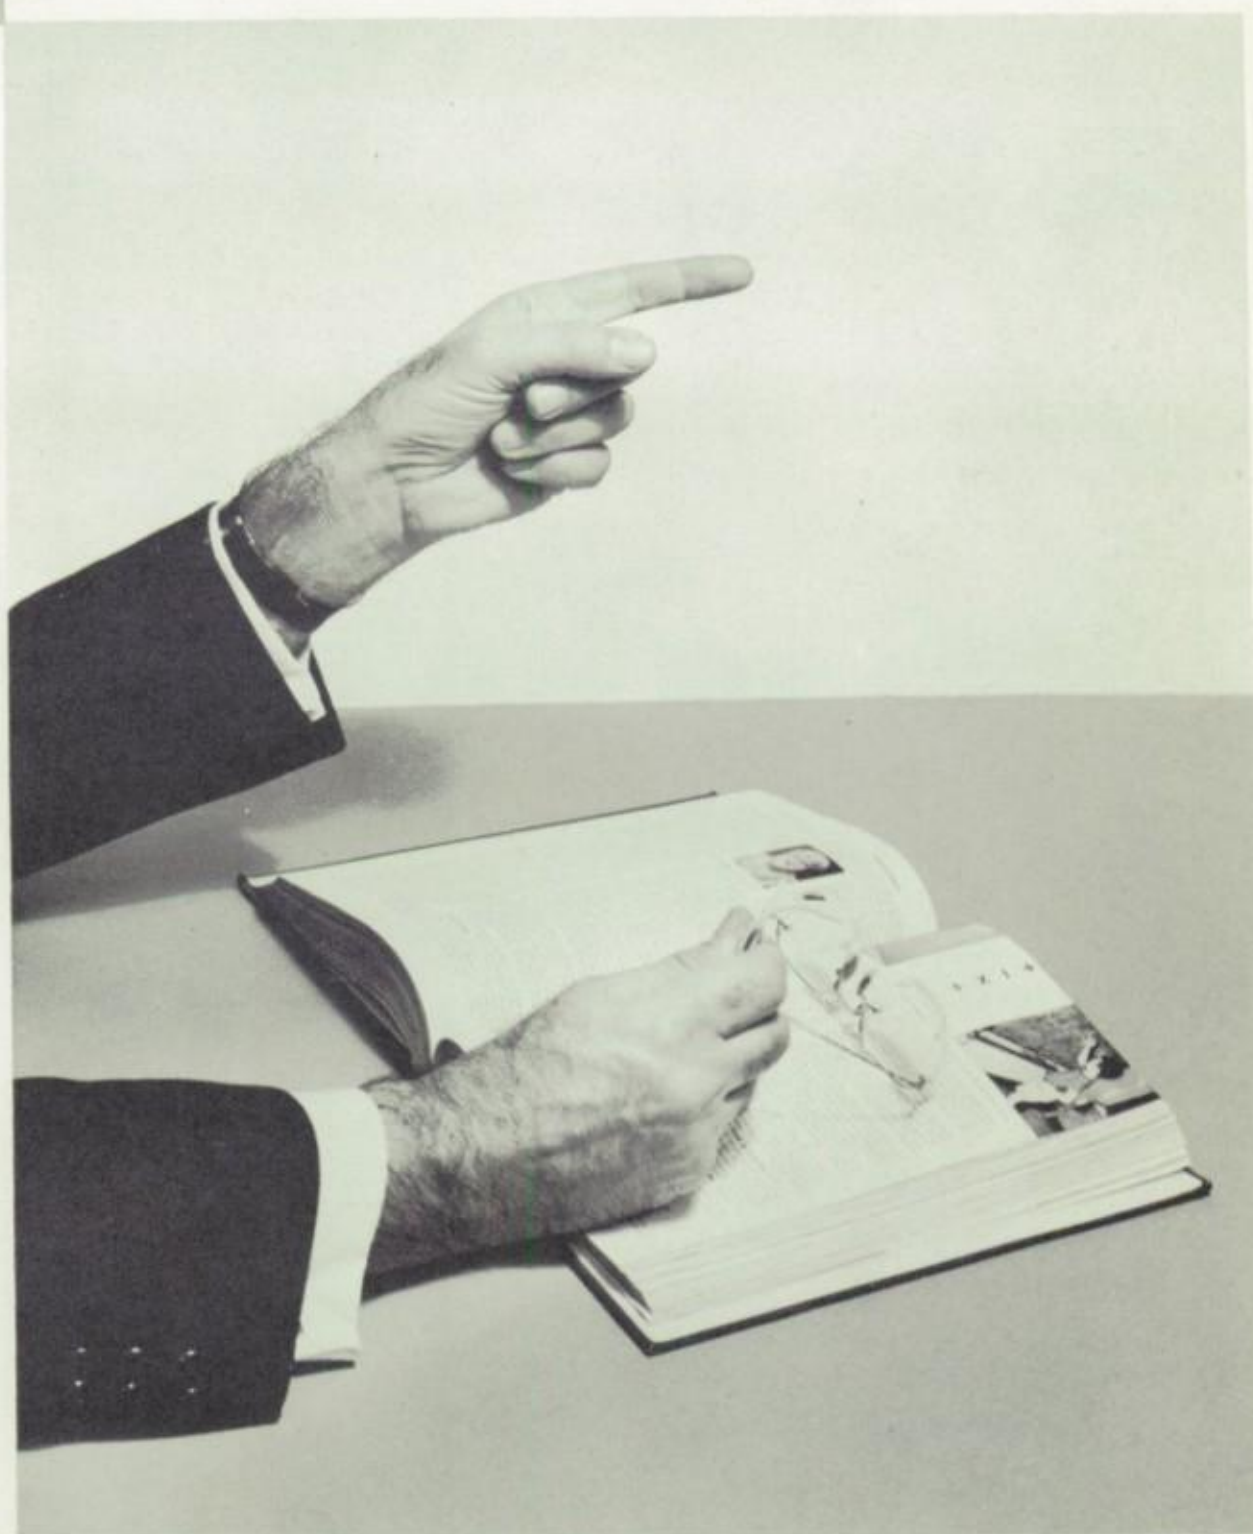

Mr. Heathcote served the school faithfully for many years as a teacher and advisor to the "Courier." We are forever indebted to his service.

ADMINISTRATION

Our Capable . . .

SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

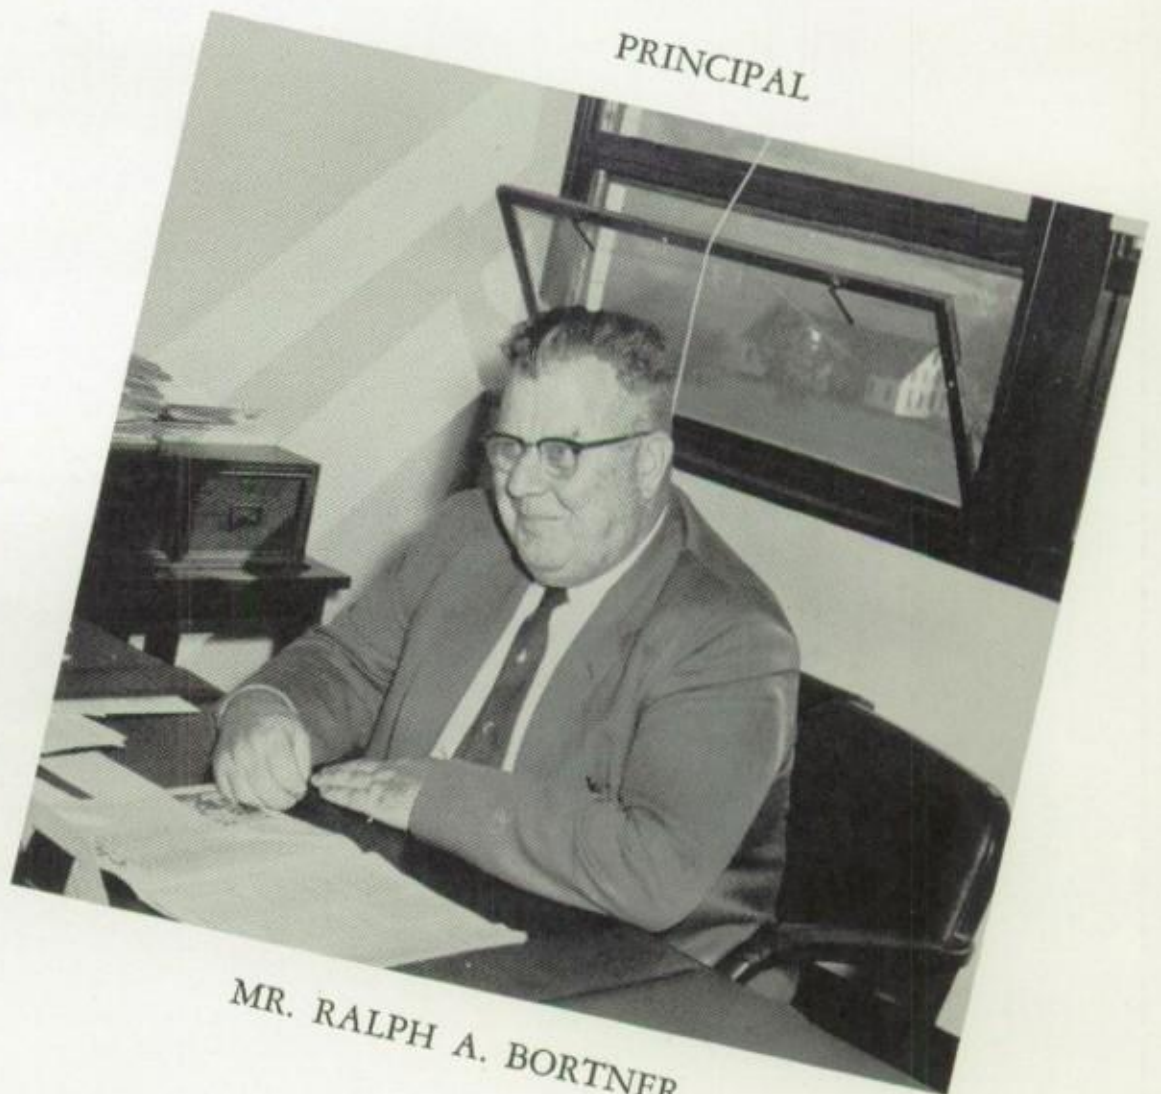

MR. WILLIAM W. LONG

Supervising Principal William Long is often seen dashing about the school from appointment to appointment. His outgoing personality and sense of humor have made him a well-liked individual during his two years at SHS.

The University of Pennsylvania is Mr. Long's alma mater from which he was granted an M.S. degree.

PRINCIPAL

MR. RALPH A. BORTNER

Mr. Ralph Bortner's friendly smile and tactful, but firm reprimands are well known and respected among Susquehannock's student body and faculty.

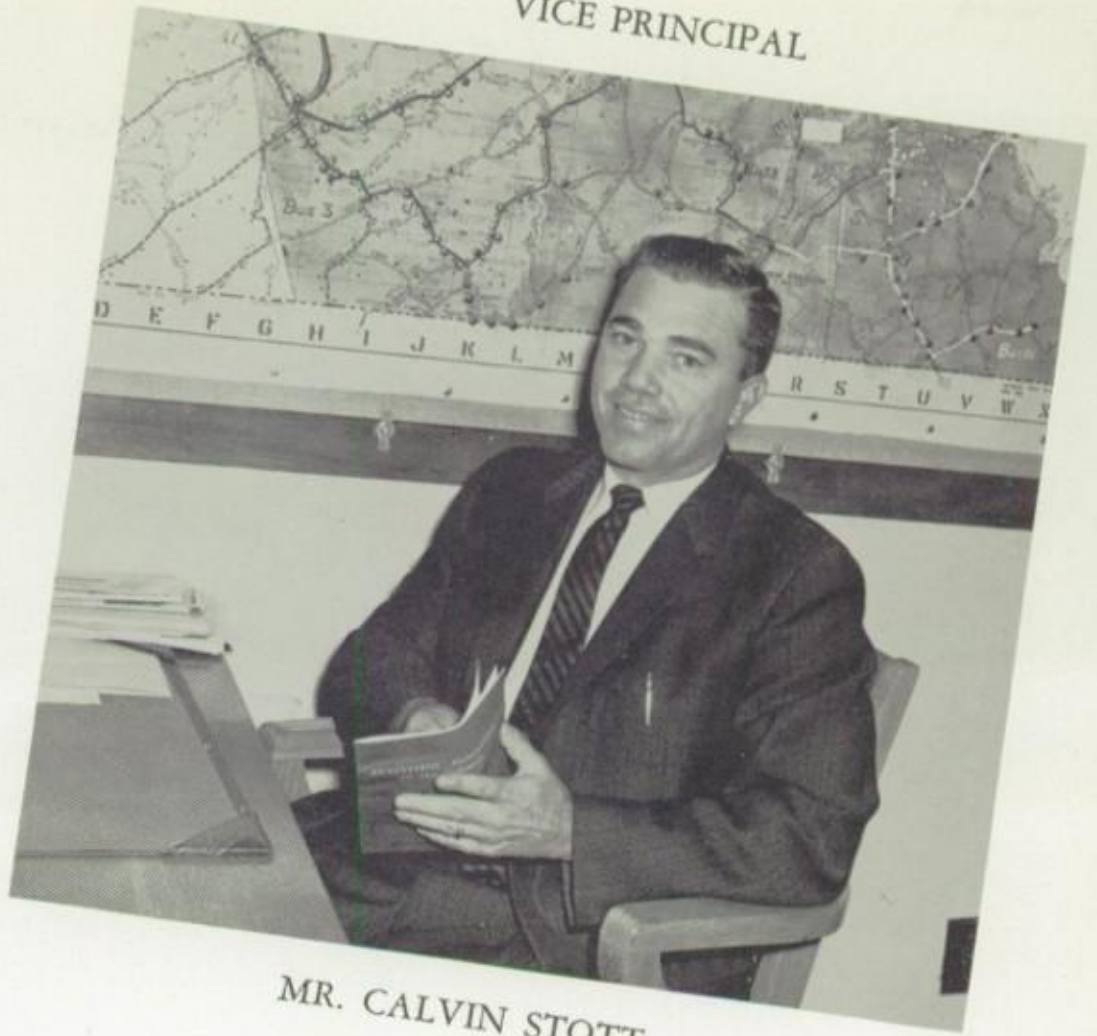

Having obtained his M.S. from Gettysburg College, he has been principal of the school since it first opened its doors in 1951.

... Leaders

VICE PRINCIPAL

Mr. Stott is the vice principal of our school. Among his many duties, he is head of the Audio-Visual Aids. He is also the school's attendance officer. Mr. Stott works with the problems of discipline and schedules.

He received his B.S. from Millersville State Teachers College and later was granted a Master's in Education from Western Maryland.

MR. CALVIN STOTT

Representing six districts of the Southern Joint School system, members of the School Board meet to discuss and decide upon issues concerning students' school life, and activities.

Among the School Board's tasks are planning the budget, election of teachers, and determining bus routes.

The P.T.A. organization considers the mutual problems of the home and school from the standpoint of the pupil's advancement and well being. Business of organization, pupil participation programs, discussion led by invited guests, with a brief social period in the cafeteria, constitutes the agenda for the usual meeting.

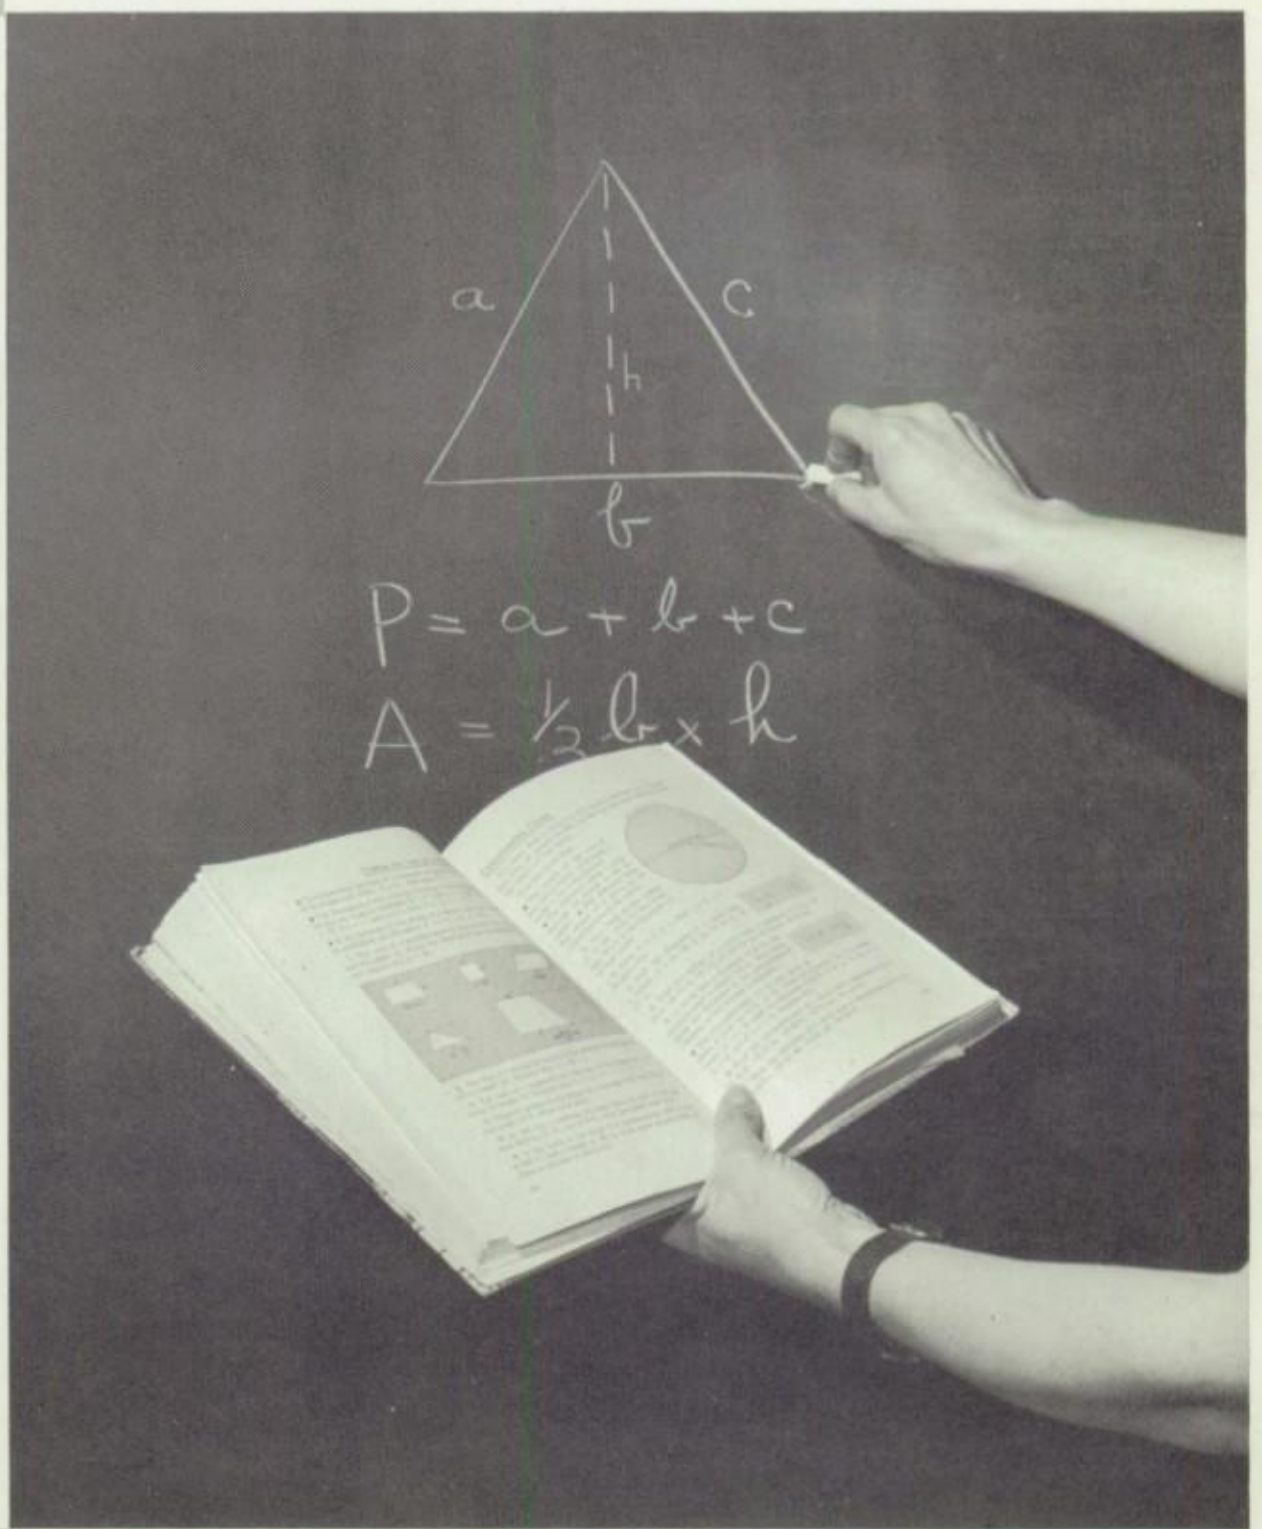

Edward McCullough offers an opinion at a P.T.A. meeting.

Board members discuss business.

The Finer Arts . . .

ART AND MUSIC

Life would be incomplete without art and music. They are an essential part of today's culture.

The Art Department helps the students to appreciate the intricacies of drawing and painting. The students are taught water color painting, the drawing of models, and the making of masks and figurines.

The Music Department has a broad program for the encouragement of students interested in participating in the band, orchestra, and choral groups. These different groups provide much of the entertainment used in assemblies and special programs.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

The General Language Course which is offered in the eighth grade gives students a brief look at the foreign languages offered at Susquehannock. If the students desire, they may then continue their study of either Latin, French, or Spanish in their remaining years in high school. These languages are offered to help students further their understanding of the people and the world around them.

Rings and Jackets

By a vote of the student body, both rings and jackets have been standardized this year.

The rings take on a completely different appearance and shape as compared to previous years. Instead of showing the Indian head on the crest, the ring displays a picture of the school on one side and school seal on the other.

Jackets and sweaters remain almost the same except for the colors, red and white.

Standard apparel displayed by students.
